REPORT OF THE SCHOOL BOARD.

FELLOW CITIZENS:

The rapid flight of time has brought us to the completion of our fiscal and scholastic year. Heretofore said year ended February 28th, but by a recent enactment of law the time is changed to the 15th of said month, which seriously interferes with our report, so that we shall only be able to present it to you very incomplete (which we deprecate but cannot remedy) as three of our schools are in session.

There have been three terms of school in each of the school-houses in town, with nearly the same number of weeks schooling. Our schools as a whole have not approximated so near our ideal model as we trusted they might have done at the outset. Some of the teachers employed are proficient in their vocation and are worthy of high commendation for their earnest persistent endeavors to aid and induce study and impress upon the minds of their pupils the grandeur of their privileges and their duty to improve them. Others, in consequence of sickness of themselves or their pupils, were unable to accomplish what they might otherwise have done under more favorable conditions, and others, being tried, were found wanting in some of the essential characteristics requisite for successful teachers, to wit: executive ability, force of character and subordinating their legitimate work to gratification of inordinate pleasure.

Although teachers are primarily and principally responsible for the conduct and progress of their pupils in the school-room, it is patent to all competent observers that parent and guardian are in some degree at least accountable to that end as well as teachers. The irregularity with which some scholars are permitted to attend school, and the entire absence for a full term of others, is pernicious in its effects and in some way ought to be rectified. It seems to us almost despotic that the law should demand a revenue by public taxation for support of schools and not provide an adequate law whereby attendance of scholars may be enforced and thus be made to partake of the privilege. It seems preposterous that law should be required to compel any in an enlightened community to avail themselves of privileges that accrue to their highest welfare, but through perversity of the mind, want of conception and lack of a definite knowledge of their interests and destinies, some fail to appreciate their true value, and only by application of law or other coercive authority will they perceive their true significance.

We freely confess the weakness of our endeavors and our errors in judgment in conducting the affairs of the district for the year past, and hope that abundant charity may be bestowed upon us; nevertheless we have the consolation that we have acted with a conscience void of offense, with an honest purpose in our actions in its behalf.

ROLL OF HONOR.

One term: Freed D. Chambers, Harry S. Slouman, Albert H. Colburn, Alfred E. Colburn, Hattie A. Elliott, Annie Creighton, Mabel Creighton, Harry Creighton, Hammond Creighton, Eva F. Elliott, Lora M. Elliott, Lizzie Hodge, Abbie A. Blood, Alice J. Hanington, Roy E. Ingerson, Bessie A. Barrett.

Two terms: Alberta E. Chambers, Edith L. Bills, Emma B. Bills, Lucy B. Elliott, Edgar Wilson, George Wilson, George W. Slouman, Herbert A. Chambers, Jessie I. Bills, John A. Elliott, Thomas H. Rhodes, George A. Rhodes, Stella E. Rhodes, Carl L. Ingerson.

Three terms: Mary G. Michael.

Thanking our constituents for courtesies received, service rendered and counsel imparted, we cheerfully submit this report for your perusal and affix our names as your humble servants,
